Biography

Dr. Christos Clerides got his LL.B (Hons) from Brunel University, Uxbridge having been awarded the First Prize for the best examination performance in 1976. In his foreword to his First Published Book in 1976 "Some Unsolved Problems in attempts to commit a crime", Professor George W. KEETON MA, LL.D, F.B.A wrote for Dr Clerides:

"His work is a notable achievement for a young lawyer at the outset of his professional career".

In 1977 he got his LL.M specializing in Maritime Law, Carriage of Goods by Sea, Marine Insurance and General Insurance at the University of London, University College. His performance made him eligible for scholarship. In 1981 he was awarded his Ph.D. at King's College, University of London, specializing in EEC Law. For his Ph.D at King's College he worked under the supervision of Professor A. Chloros later the Greek Judge of the European Court of Justice and Professor Francis Jacobs, later Advocate General of the European Court of Justice in Luxembourg. His thesis, "Conflicts of Social Security Laws in the European Committees" was approved by an External Board of examiners, Professors K. Lipstein of Cambridge and Hartley of The London School of Economics in 1981. He worked in England as part of his LL.B (Hons) "sandwich" course with CITY Solicitors, Barlow, Lyde and Gilbert, under the supervision of the late President of the Law Society, Sir Denis Marshall. He was called to the Cyprus Bar in 1982 having passed relevant Bar Exams, First Grade. He is a practicing Advocate and head of the Nicosia Offices since 1982.

jurisdiction of the Ecclesiastical Court, in matters of divorce. He has participated and organized numerous Human Rights conferences and meetings in Cyprus. He is currently Head of the Law Department at the Frederick University where he also teaches.

The Firm

The Chambers have a history of some 50 years and more. The Law Practice goes back to the early 1950's. It was setup by Mr. Phoebus N. Clerides Barrister-at-law, of Lincoln's Inn. He unfortunately passed away on 30.11.2011. Phoebus Clerides came from a well known family of teachers, lawyers, politicians. His father was a well known author and teacher from Agros village. First cousin to Glafkos Clerides ex President of the Republic. Phoebus was the brother of Lefkos Clerides also a Barrister-at-Law and Senior Counsel, ex Minister of Justice and ex President of the Cyprus Bar. Phoebus was also a Minister of Justice 1983-1985 and a Member of the House of Representatives. He served in the Cyprus Regiment during the Second World War. Though he was retired he still was a valuable consultant to our firm until his death.

His son Dr. Christos Clerides joined the practice in 1982. The practice was carried out under Phoebus Clerides & Co. Years later, the firm started cooperating with Neophytos Piriildes law firm in Limassol and still does until today.

In 2009 the firm formed a Lawyers' Limited Company and was re-named Phoebus, Christos Clerides & Associates LLC. Many young and aspiring pupil advocates did their year of training with Phoebus, Christos Clerides and Associates and still do so.
